Day One - San Francisco

It may measure less than 50 square miles/130 square kilometers, but San Francisco justly ranks as one of the greatest cities in the world. Famous for grand-dame Victorians, classic cable cars, dynamic diversity, a beautiful waterfront, and a soaring crimson bridge, the “City by the Bay” truly has it all. Trend-defining cuisine ranging from Michelin-starred dining to outrageous food trucks; world-renowned symphony, ballet, theater, and opera; plus, almost boundless outdoor adventures, San Francisco justifiably stands out as one of the ultimate must-sees on any traveler’s wish list.

Day Two - Napa Valley

Napa Valley reigns as the land of grand estates, expansive tasting rooms, quaint towns, and elegant lodgings, many of which edge up to the celebrated Silverado Trail. Roughly an hour’s drive north of San Francisco and boasting more than 400 wineries, Napa Valley is a connoisseur’s paradise, inviting visitors to explore beyond the region’s signature Cabernet Sauvignon and Chardonnay. Don’t miss, for instance, the rediscovered Merlot, whose plush texture and earthy cherry flavor are appealing to a new generation of red wine fans.

Day Three - Sacramento: A modern city celebrating history

Sacramento is the star on the map of California—where you will find cultural attractions to inspire you, cutting-edge cuisine to impress you, history to enrich you and surprises to put a smile on your face. Venture out in any direction and you’ll see why they’re fond of saying, “California begins here.”

Day Four & Five – Reno Tahoe!

Where the Southwest meets the Northwest, you’ll find a destination with a passion for living – Reno Tahoe! With its ideal location at the upper reaches of the Southwest and the mountainous start of the Northwest, Reno Tahoe offers the best of both regions – a beautiful high desert setting and backdrop of towering peaks that has more special events, outdoor recreation, world-class spas, breathtaking vistas and sunny days than any other resort area in North America. Even better, you’ll find it all at extremely affordable prices.

Day Six - Elko, Nevada

When you discover Elko, Nevada, you quickly see why this truly is the “Great American West.” A land of adventure, capable of stretching the limits of your adventure. The raw majesty of Elko County’s Ruby Mountains and the rugged canyon streams will let you discover the unspoiled drama of the West. Whether your next adventure is a short trip up Lamoille Canyon, fishing at Southfork or Wild Horse Reservoirs, an ATV or snowmobiling trip at Merritt Mountain or just enjoying the many activities that Elko County has to offer, you will discover why “The Adventure Starts Here.”

Day Seven – Yellowstone National Park
