THE PLACE FOR ADVENTURE

RENO TAHOE IS WHERE THE LARGEST ALPINE LAKE in North America meets the Biggest Little City in the World – a beautiful contrast of high adrenaline activities, burgeoning art scene and remote solitude.

Find the complete vacation menu: Beautiful scenery, parks, beaches, golf courses, ski resorts, superlative dining, 24-hour gaming and entertainment, public art and one-of-a-kind events!

In this guide to Reno Tahoe are the insights of global travel bloggers, local experts, adventure seekers, travel photographers, foodies and professional soccer players.

What they all discover in Reno is a city in renaissance. Heavy hitter companies like Tesla and Google have set up shop here, helping spur a burst of new restaurants, retail, entertainment and nightlife. Art takes to the street in murals, public sculptures, galleries, special events and at the Nevada Museum of Art.

Lake Tahoe is within easy driving distance of Reno, with popular high-alpine locations like Mt. Rose and Tahoe Meadows only 20–30 minutes away. Tahoe's pristine waters are a summer sweet spot for paddleboarders, kayakers and fishing enthusiasts. In winter, its surrounding peaks are a world-renowned playhouse for snowboarders and skiers.

No matter how outrageous your wishes, or off-the-hook your ambitions, seek and ye shall find your ideal adventures in Reno Tahoe.

EXPECT THE UNEXPECTED

GOOD EATS, HISTORIC TOWNS, EPIC LAKE DAYS AND ALL THE GREAT COFFEE YOU COULD HOPE FOR—Reno Tahoe satisfies in so many ways. The surprises are particularly memorable. Reno is the closest city to Burning Man and the Playa Art Park is a collection of sculptures from past years. A climb on the heart sculpture is a favorite. Bundox Boccee is a huge indoor fun zone of Bocce courts, shuffleboard, Skee-ball and special events. If you're a history buff, take the 35-minute drive from Reno to Virginia City. The town dates back to the discovery of silver here in the 1860s, and is full of Victorian-style buildings, historic sites and museums. A steam train makes 35-minute round trips to historic Gold Hill. You may think you know food trucks, but Food Truck Friday in Reno is MASSIVE, stretching the length of Idlewild Park on Fridays, 4–9 p.m. from May to September. Hub Coffee Roasters is in a cute neighborhood along a tree-lined path on the Truckee River. It has all the beautifully-crafted lattes and chocolate croissants you could ever want, plus big picture windows and an impressive outdoor patio.

PHOTOGENIC ADVENTURES

ALPENGLow. SUNSETS. COTTON CANDY CLOUDS. THE MILKY WAY. Reno Tahoe skies constantly serve up an irresistible light show, no matter the season or time of day. Lake Tahoe is a delight to the eye and all the senses. Take a sailboat charter to the middle of “Big Blue,” or take in the view along the new bike path to Sand Harbor State Park. If you want a bit more exercise, Monkey Rock is a popular 2.5-mile round-trip climb to a spectacular vantage point. With more than 300 days of sunshine, exploring Reno on foot or by bike is an option almost all year. The Truckee River makes its way through downtown, bringing nature to the city’s heart. Take a stroll through the Riverwalk District to find coffee shops, picnic-perfect parks and plenty of photo ops. Get outside the city limits and experience all the desert has to offer, from wild horses and diverse wildlife to striking rock formations. There are off-road routes surrounding Reno Tahoe, so put it in 4WD, roll down the windows and explore the great wide open.

72 HOURS IN RENO TAHOE

RENO TAHOE BRIMS WITH A SENSE THAT NOW IS ITS TIME—a combination of unparalleled natural beauty, Burning Man-fueled arts community, and a Wild-West-meets-Tesla entrepreneurial grit. New mountain bike trails appear almost as quickly as new restaurants. Hotel exteriors are converted into the tallest climbing wall in the world. A downtown stretch of the Truckee River becomes a whitewater park. Spend your morning skiing at 10,000' and your afternoon climbing Pig Rock near the Black Rock Desert. Shows and gaming might be a priority for your three days in Reno, but if you fancy a quick break and light exercise, scenic hiking trails are just outside the city at Hidden Valley and Galena Creek regional parks. Visiting Lake Tahoe is a must for many visitors. Or, start the morning just steps from a downtown Reno hotel room fly-fishing the Truckee River. Go paddleboarding on the calm water at Sparks Marina, a great spot to catch sunset over the Sierra Nevada mountains. Then close down the lanes at Reno Axe! Sign a waiver; order a drink; throw an axe. Between it all, eat, drink and repeat through the city's array of unique dining spots, brew pubs and coffee roasters.

THE OUTBOUND COLLECTIVE IS
INTERNATIONAL

WINTER PARADISE

RENO TAHOE HAS THE LARGEST CONCENTRATION OF SKI RESORTS IN NORTH AMERICA and is home to world-class resorts like Squaw Valley, who hosted the 1960 Winter Olympic Games, and family favorite Northstar California Resort. Less than an hour from Reno you can find Mt Rose Ski Tahoe, the region's highest base elevation resort, and Tahoe's hidden gem, Diamond Peak.

Winter here is ideal for cross-country and backcountry skiing, snowshoeing and snowmobiling. Or, take a glider ride over the Lake Tahoe's snowcapped mountains and incredibly blue waters!

Fall through spring, Reno and Carson valleys are usually snow-free. With over 300 days of sunshine, the outdoor opportunities are endless. Rent a bike and cruise downtown Reno or along the Tahoe-Pyramid Bike Trail. Mountain bike trails near Reno and Carson Valley are ideal every month of the year. Tee up at one of our year-round golf courses where the greens fees are a steal deal, and warm up before tee time at Grand Bay Driving Range at Grand Sierra Resort.

Natural hot springs are found along the eastern slope of the Sierra Nevada range and out in the Black Rock Desert. Winter off-roading is often possible in much of the high desert. When you've had your fill of the outdoors, cozy cafes, fun bars and candlelight dinners await!

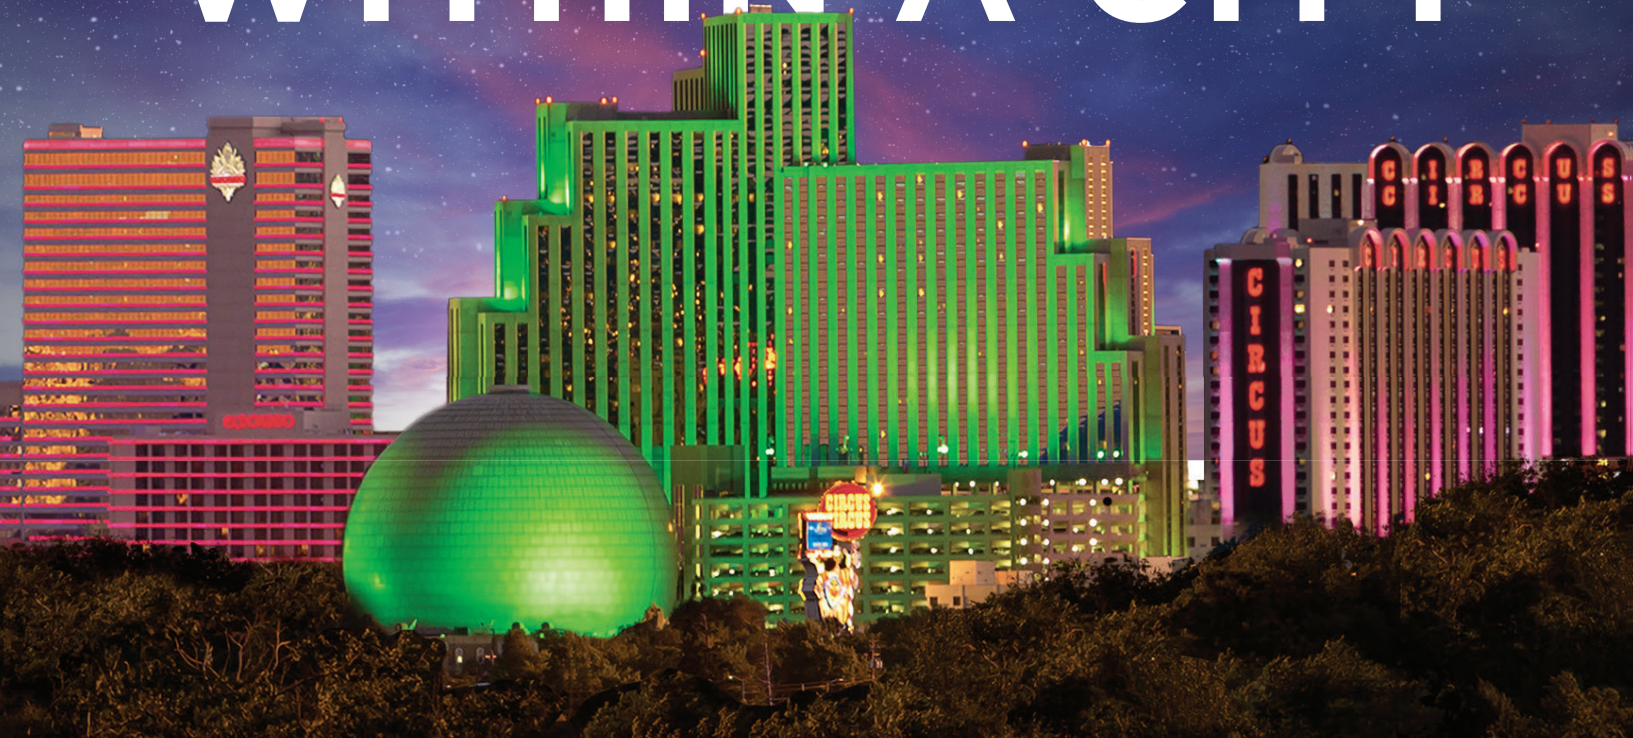

HANGING WITH THE PROS

RENO IS HOME TO TWO PROFESSIONAL SPORTS TEAMS:

Reno 1868 FC of the United Soccer League and the Reno Aces minor league baseball team. They share seasons and a stylish downtown stadium, so you're almost guaranteed to be able to catch a game when in town. What do 1868 players do with time off? Plenty! Great trails just outside Reno's city limits are a quick escape from the urban hustle. Hunter Creek trail travels to hidden waterfalls and skyline vistas. On summer days, head to the Truckee River Whitewater Park. Go tubing through the drops, then kick back on the grass at Wingfield Park. Head toward one of many great food, drink and coffee spots in the Riverwalk District. Surf's up at Lake Tahoe! Wakesurfing is a mix of traditional surfing and wakeboarding. Not a surfer? Local companies like Tahoe Surf Company have the gear and instruction needed to create unforgettable days on the water. Reno specializes in epic summer events, starting with the Reno River Festival in May. Reno Rodeo comes to town in June—the Wildest, Richest Rodeo in the West! Then every month through the fall brings more fun events

FRESH BREWS & SPIRITS

OVER THE LAST FOUR YEARS, ALMOST 50 BREWERIES, DISTILLERIES AND WINERIES have turned Reno Tahoe into an oasis for lovers of the craft. Run by a young beer savant, Lead Dog Brewing's Reno or Sparks locations are must visits, featuring a rotating line up of eclectic flavors. Sharing a building with Lead Dog's Reno brew pub is Basin and Range Cellars, Nevada's only estate winery. For premium IPA, New England-style beer shakes and hop bombs, visit Revision Brewing Co. Their beer factory in Sparks is the largest in the region, or visit their low-key taproom above Pignic Pub & Patio in downtown Reno. Cocktails anyone? Compare 18th century-styled spirits of Seven Troughs Distilling to the modern perfectionism of 10 Torr Distillery and Brewery. Seven Troughs produces small batch moonshine and whiskey in open barrels while 10 Torr creates smooth spirits and canned cocktails on a large-scale. Bently Heritage Estate Distillery, in the Carson Valley, grow their own grains to produce gins, vodkas and liqueurs. Frey Ranch Estate Distillery in Fallon has roots dating back more than a 100-years, offering absinthe, vodka, gin and bourbon.

CHOW DOWN

RENO IS QUICKLY BECOMING KNOWN AS A FOODIE'S HEAVEN. Just ask food and travel blogger Tammilee Tips. "Reno is a brunch town," she says, and local favorite PJ & Company "can't" be missed. Their Jenny Benny is a vegetarian eggs benedict with veggie sausage and sherried cream cheese Benedict sauce. Two Chicks is an amazing restaurant in Reno's Midtown. Try pancake dippers king style or a Bumble

Brie sandwich. If there's a wait, take a short walk to Perren Bakery for a starter coffee or tea, croissant or sweet treat. With its warm atmosphere and fantastic menu, you'll be tempted to spend the day there. Gold and Silver Inn is like stepping into a time machine with a menu full of great quality diner food, and Great Full Gardens is a vegan-friendly restaurant that offers something for everyone. Quality brew pub food can be found at Brassiere St. James Brewery and Great Basin Brewery. Anthony's Chophouse, in the Nugget Casino Resort, is an upscale steakhouse with excellent fresh seafood. La Strada in the Eldorado Resort has delicious Italian fare—the cannoli are a must! Smiling with Hope Pizza serves up the best "pie" in town and 30 percent of their staff are workers with disabilities.
